
I. Introduction

Background, Aims and Method

I. Introduction

KEY POINT Framed by the virtuous cycle of religion and economy, the study sets out the need, scope and method of the research.

Structure of the Chapter

- 1. The necessity of the research — four crises from a paralysis of circulation
- 2. Review of prior research — the Eastern origin of Western economics & cyclic thought
- 3. Scope and method — comparing the four economic ethics with the Daesoon tenets